"Winemaker of the Year" (oenologist of the year) is. The Florentine oenologist Carlo Ferrini has a natural talent for oenology: graduating from the University of Florence in 1978, with a degree in agriculture, he began immediately his professional experience to the Associates of Classic Chianti, where he remained for more than ten years, contributing to the project "Classic Chianti 2000", an all inclusive work dedicated to discovering the secrets of the vines. Academician of the Lives and of the Wine in 1991, the successive year Ferrini began his career as a consultant to become one of the most esteemed oenologists in Italy and beyond. In 2000 he was oenologist of the year for the Red Prawn/Slow Food society, and in 2003 he received the same recognition from the most prestigious Italian association of the sommeliers. Today he is consultant oenologist for the most important businesses of the Fine Country: from the Tuscan Baron Ricasoli, Brancaia, Castle of Fonterutoli, Azienda Nittardi, I Lean Bonelli (group Mps), Farm of Petrolo, Verrano, Castle of the Soil, Sapaio, Poliziano, Talents, Castle Romitorio, Casanova Black (best wine of the world in another review in the "Wine Spectator", with the Brunello of Montalcino 2001)

D'Almerita and Donnafugata to the Marchesi Gonzaga, an important négociant of Bordeaux and of Burgundy.
