

A French Paradox, Inc. Importer of French Fine Wines

Dear Customers,

We are proud to introduce the Burgundies wines from Domaine Albert Bichot, a family estate since 1831.

Managed by the Bichot sixth generation, they own five domains which include 80 appellations through 247 acres

Domaine Albert Bichot focuses on the perfect balance between quality and respect for the environment and searches to highlight the value of fruits by as little interference as possible.

They proposed a large range of wines in all prices and they have been recognized for their qualities by the most important institutions.
